

Figure 1. Study area map for proposed project around Kibale National Park. Kibale National Park comprises the corridor and forest reserve. This figure shows the areas that have experienced deforestation since 1984 within Kibale and areas outside. Clearly the corridor is the most dynamic part of this park. This project proposes to extend our analyses along the corridor.

Figure adapted from Hartter and Ryan et al. (2011)